

RIGHT TO INFORMATION ACT, 2005

Introduction

The Right to Information Bill was passed by the Parliament on 13th May 2005. The Bill got the Presidential assent on 15th June 2005 to become the Right to Information Act 2005. Right to Information Act is an Act to provide for freedom to every citizen to secure access to information under the control of public authorities, consistent with public interest, in order to promote openness, transparency and accountability in administration and in relation to matters connected there with. To bring about transparency and accountability and to implement the provisions of the Right to Information Act 2005, CENTRAL TOOL ROOM (CTR) has made an attempt to provide certain information to citizens to empower them to exercise their right to Information. CTR has designated Central Public Information Officer (CPIO) for dissemination of information. Appellate Officer has also been designated to provide facility to the public to appeal in case of non receipt of information sought for.

In case Information is not available as provided hereunder the said information can be sought under the Right to Information Act, 2005 by applying in the prescribed format. The format along with prescribed fees may be deposited which shall be forwarded to the CPIO and a date for receiving the information would be given to the applicant.

In case the Information can not be made available the cause for not making available such information would be given to the applicant in the prescribed period. If not satisfied to the reply, the applicant can seek redressal of his grievance from the Appellate Authority designated for the purpose.

For providing Information CTR charges the fee @ Rs. 2/- per page for printed information.

Rs.50/- per floppy and

Rs. 100/- per CD in case information through CD.

However, as under RTI Act no fees will be charged for the persons below poverty line, the request for obtaining information under sub section 1 and section 6 shall be accompanied by the application fees of Rs. 10/- by way of cash against proper receipt or bank draft or bankers cheque payable to CTR, Ludhiana. The payment may be made directly to the Accounts Officer.

THE POCEDURE FOLLOWED FOR THE DECISION MAKING PROCESS INCLUDING CHANNEL OF SUPERVISION AND ACCOUNTABILITY

(Under Section 4(1)(b)(iii) of Right to Information Act 2005)

The functions of CTR are mainly technical. Long Term and Short Term Training in Tool Engineering & CAD/CAM are being imparted to the freshers as well as personnel already working in industries. Design & manufacturing activities are being undertaken in Production Department. Besides this, supporting activities such as purchasing of materials & tools etc., Store keeping and Administrative and Accounting activities are also there. For efficient management of the activities there exists a system to ensure speedy & correct decision making processes. Procedures adopted are as follows:

I. General Process:

- The Section I/c will himself initiate action on the receipts keeping in view the priority requirements.
- Paper work will be kept at essential minimum.
- Least time will be taken for disposal
- While disposing cases, the Section in charge will aim at optimizing quality as well as quantity of work performed by him & submit the same to the HOD.

II. Standard Process Sheet:

For dealing with cases of repetitive nature such as issuance of tender, comparative statement of tenders, order confirmation, job process sheets, sanction of leave, forwarding of applications etc. Standard Process Sheets are advised and being used. In case of Administration and Accounts standard forms are also used besides the statutory forms.

III. Level of disposal and channel of submission:

As the activity of CTR is mainly technical in nature the level of disposal and channel of submission have been kept minimum. The Section-in-charge is to initiate and suggest the action to be taken to the Head of the Deptt who has been delegated with certain administrative and financial power to take decision and dispose off the cases. Decisions to be taken beyond the power of the HODs shall go to the General Manager, Chief Executive of CTR for disposal who has been entrusted with financial and administrative powers to manage the day to day activities of the Centre. In case of policy decisions the matter shall be referred to Chairman/Governing Council.
